PARTIES

6. Plaintiff JERMAINE JOYNER is a thirty-nine-year-old Black man residing in Brooklyn, New York.

7. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK was and is a municipal corporation duly organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of New York.

8. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK maintains the New York City Police Department, a duly authorized public authority and/or police department, authorized to perform all functions of a police department as per the applicable sections of the aforementioned municipal corporation, CITY OF NEW YORK.

9. That at all times hereinafter mentioned, the individually named defendants JOSEPH FRANCO, CHRISTOPHER J. MULLER, and JOHN and JANE DOE 1 through 10, were duly sworn police officers of said department and were acting under the supervision of said department and according to their official duties.

10. That at all times hereinafter mentioned the defendants, either personally or through their employees, were acting under color of state law and/or in compliance with the official rules, regulations, laws, statutes, customs, usages and/or practices of the State of New York and/or the City of New York.

11. Each and all of the acts of the defendants alleged herein were done by said defendants while acting within the scope of their employment by defendant CITY OF NEW YORK.

FACTS

12. This action arises from the malicious prosecution and unjust conviction of plaintiff JERMAINE JOYNER based on false allegations of now fired disgraced former NYPD narcotics detective JOSEPH FRANCO, and NYPD detective defendant CHRISTOPHER J. MULLER.

13. A New York County grand jury indicted former detective FRANCO in 2019 on twenty-six criminal counts, including perjury and official misconduct, after the Manhattan District Attorney's office initiated criminal charges against FRANCO based on the discovery of video footage which confirmed that defendant FRANCO had testified falsely to witnessing drug transactions, which had led to several false arrests and prosecutions.

14. Subsequently, in May of 2020, defendant FRANCO was fired from the NYPD following an NYPD disciplinary trial, at which an administrative judge who oversaw the trial found that Franco had testified falsely under oath and recommended his termination.

15. In response to the revelations regarding defendant FRANCO's criminality and serial perjury, District Attorney's Offices in Manhattan, Brooklyn, and the Bronx, vacated hundreds of convictions which had been based on the unreliable testimony of defendant FRANCO.

16. One of the many victims of FRANCO's perjury and false testimony was plaintiff, JERMAINE JOYNER.

17. Plaintiff was arrested based on false claims of FRANCO that on January 8, 2008, in front of 12 St. Mark's Place, Brooklyn, New York, he had participated in an exchange of drugs for money with defendant FRANCO, who was working undercover at the time.

18. Defendant MULLER was also present, and allegedly also made observations of a purported drug sale during the ensuing arrest of plaintiff.

19. Defendants FRANCO and MULLER's allegations were false.

20. Plaintiff was arrested by defendant MULLER and prosecuted based on the false claims of MULLER and FRANCO, which were conveyed to the Kings County District Attorney's Office by MULLER and FRANCO, and which caused plaintiff to be prosecuted and indicted under Indictment No. 550/2008.

21. Defendants MULLER and FRANCO initiated said prosecution with malice, and otherwise caused said prosecution to be commenced against plaintiff without probable cause.

22. Defendants MULLER and FRANCO created and manufactured the false evidence which was used against plaintiff in the aforementioned legal proceedings, including that plaintiff had engaged in a drug sale involving FRANCO on January 8, 2008, and had been observed by MULLER engaging in a second sale on that date.

23. As a result of the defendants' conduct, plaintiff was compelled to return to court on numerous occasions, until on September 19, 2008, out of fear of a possible lengthier sentence if he fought his case through trial, plaintiff took a plea to serve one year in jail with one year of post release supervision.

24. Thereafter, on April 7, 2021, after plaintiff had served his sentence and FRANCO's misdeeds had been discovered, the Kings County District Attorney's Office moved to vacate plaintiff's unjust conviction, and the indictment and conviction lodged against plaintiff were dismissed and sealed on that date by the Honorable Matthew J. D'Emic, in Kings County Supreme Court.

25. Defendants MULLER, FRANCO, and JOHN and JANE DOE 1 through 10 either directly participated in the above illegal acts, failed to intervene in them despite a meaningful opportunity to do so, or supervised and approved of, oversaw, and otherwise participated in the aforementioned misconduct.

26. All of the above occurred as a direct result of the unconstitutional policies, customs, or practices of the City of New York, including, without limitation, the inadequate screening, hiring, retaining, training and supervising its employees; and pursuant to customs or practices of employing individuals who were unqualified for their jobs and who engaged in falsification, and of lax investigations of police misconduct, and of covering up abuse by fellow officers.

27. The aforesaid event is not an isolated incident. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK is aware from lawsuits, notices of claims, complaints filed with the NYPD's Internal Affairs Bureau, and the CITY OF NEW YORK'S Civilian Complaint Review Board, and extensive media coverage that many NYPD officers, including the defendants engage in a practice of falsification.

28. For instance, in another civil rights action filed in this court involving false allegations regarding narcotics arrests by NYPD officers, Judge Jack B. Weinstein pronounced:

Informal inquiry by the court and among judges of this court, as well as knowledge of cases in other federal and state courts, has revealed anecdotal evidence of repeated, widespread falsification by arresting police officers of the New York City Police Department. . . . [T]here is some evidence of an attitude among officers that is sufficiently widespread to constitute a custom or policy by the city approving illegal conduct of the kind now charged. Colon v. City of New York, et. al., 2009 WL 4263362, *2 (E.D.N.Y. 2009).

29. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK is further aware that such improper training and supervision has often resulted in a deprivation of civil rights. Despite such notice, defendant CITY OF NEW YORK has failed to take corrective action. This failure caused the officers in the present case to violate the plaintiffs' civil rights.

30. Moreover, upon information and belief, defendant CITY OF NEW YORK was aware, prior to the incident, that the individual defendants lacked the objectivity, temperament, maturity, discretion, and disposition to be employed as police officers. Despite such notice, defendant CITY OF NEW YORK has retained these officers, and failed to adequately train and supervise them.

31. All of the aforementioned acts of defendants, their agents, servants, and employees were conducted under the color of state law.

32. All of the aforementioned acts deprived plaintiff JERMAINE JOYNER of the rights, privileges and immunities guaranteed to citizens of the United States by the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States of America, and in violation of 42 U.S.C. §1983.

33. The acts complained of were conducted by the aforementioned individual defendants in their capacities as police officers, with the entire actual and/or apparent authority attendant thereto.

34. Defendants, collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law, engaged in conduct that constituted a custom, usage, practice, procedure, or rule of the respective municipality/authority, which is forbidden by the Constitution of the United States.

35. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff JERMAINE JOYNER sustained, inter alia, serious physical injuries, emotional distress, embarrassment, and humiliation, and deprivation of his constitutional rights.

The aforementioned customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of the New York City Police Department included, but were not limited to, inadequate screening, hiring, retaining, training, and supervising its employees that was the moving force behind the violation of plaintiff JERMAINE JOYNER’ rights as described herein. In addition, the New York City Police Department was aware that many officers engage in falsification in support of improper arrests. As a result of the failure of the CITY OF NEW YORK to properly recruit, screen, train, discipline, and supervise its officers, including the individual defendants, defendant CITY OF NEW YORK has tacitly authorized, ratified, and has been deliberately indifferent to, the acts and conduct complained of herein.

56. The foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures, and rules of the CITY OF NEW YORK and the New York City Police Department constituted deliberate indifference to the safety, well-being, and constitutional rights of plaintiff JERMAINE JOYNER.
